

BRIAN ALLEN

A 1974 graduate of Newton County High School, Brian graduated from Oxford College in 1976 and the University of Georgia in 1978 with a bachelor's degree in political science. He worked for the Georgia Department of Labor for nearly four years before joining Newton County in 1982 as the County's zoning administrator. He became executive assistant at the invitation of then Commission Chairman Roy Varner in 1986. In October 1995, Brian became assistant county administrator in Gwinnett County. In September 1996, he moved to his current position as the director of the Gwinnett County Department of Transportation.

Brian currently serves with the following organizations: the Association County Commissioners of Georgia, the American Public Transit Association, the Georgia Transit Association, the America Public Works Association, the Georgia Institute of Engineers, Eastridge Community Church, the Atlanta Regional Commission (ARC), the ARC Transit Task Force, the Gwinnett Chamber of Commerce, and the Regional Leadership Forum. Brian's wife, Pam, is a first grade school teacher and they have three children, Sam, Beth, and David.
