

DAVID PEEK

David Peek has served as Department Director/Warden since April 2009. He began his career with Gwinnett County in 1979 as a police officer and earned promotions at regular intervals until reaching the rank of Police Captain. In 1999, David transferred to the Department of Corrections and was appointed to the position of Deputy Warden. David has directed both divisions, Support Services and Security, within the Department of Corrections and in 2006 he became the first person in the State of Georgia to earn recognition as a Certified Correctional Executive by the American Correctional Association. David previously worked for the Clayton County Sheriff's Department. He completed the Gwinnett County Executive DRIVE Program in 2005 and is a graduate of Columbia Southern University.
