

CHIEF DEPUTY MIKE BOYD

- Chief Mike Boyd began his law enforcement career in 1983 with the Dougherty County Police Department as a patrol officer. Chief Boyd later accepted a position as a Deputy Sheriff with the Chambers County Sheriff's Department in Alabama. While with the Chambers County Sheriff's Department, he worked various duties to include dispatch, detention, patrol, investigations, and administration advancing to the rank of Chief Deputy. In 1992, Chief Boyd accepted the position of Chief of Police for the City of Suwanee, Georgia. In 1998, he accepted a position as Chief of Police for the City of Moultrie, Georgia. While in Moultrie, Chief Boyd lead the department toward the creation of new community policing programs, reaccreditation through the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, and the initial State of Georgia Law Enforcement Certification. In 2004, Chief Boyd accepted an appointment from Sheriff Conway as Chief Deputy with the Gwinnett County Sheriff's Department.
- Chief Boyd holds a Bachelors and a Masters Degree in Criminal Justice Administration from Troy State University.
- He is a graduate of the 162nd Session of the FBI National Academy.
- He currently serves as Chairman of the Georgia Law Enforcement Certification Joint Review Committee responsible for oversight and approval of certification for agencies throughout the state.
- He is a graduate of the 2007-08 Leadership Gwinnett Class.
- He serves on community boards of the Gwinnett Technical College and has served as Chair of the United Way Campaign.
- He is past President of the Gwinnett County Police Chiefs Association, past Executive Board member and District Representative for the Georgia Association of Chiefs of Police.
- He is an avid golfer, and enjoys hiking and travel.
- Chief Boyd and his wife Debbie have been married for 26 years, and have two children Brett, who is a Gwinnett County Police Officer, and Stephanie, who is a senior at Collins Hill High school. Also a part of the family is Elvis, a three year old Basset Hound.