

PHIL HOSKINS

Phil has served as Director of Community Services for Gwinnett County since January 1996. Along with his administrative duties overseeing diverse divisions, he plays a major role in the acquisition of greenspace and implementation of the sales tax program for Parks and Recreation. He is a graduate of Leadership Gwinnett and the Regional Leadership Institute. His involvement in the Gwinnett community includes serving on several volunteer boards.

Phil has worked more than 30 years in public service. Prior to coming to Gwinnett, he served as the Assistant City Manager for the City of Owensboro, Kentucky. During this 12-year tenure, he directed various community development projects and oversaw operations including parks and recreation. He also served as Recreation Director for the City of St. Cloud, Minnesota, and as a facility supervisor for Zion Park District, Illinois. Phil holds a Master of Science in parks and recreation administration (emphasis on public administration) from Indiana University and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Georgetown College in Kentucky. He resides in the Dacula area with his wife, Janet.
