

STEVEN A. LOGAN, AICP

Steve Logan served as Director of the Planning Division for Gwinnett County for over twelve years, capping a 36 year career in urban planning and public administration. Other positions held during his career included Director of the Land Use and Economic Analysis Division of the Tampa Bay Regional Planning Council in Tampa, Florida and Deputy County Administrator for Manatee County, Florida.

Throughout much of his professional career Mr. Logan sketched and painted to relieve stress. He now resides in Wilmington, North Carolina where he works in his home studio and sells his art through local galleries. His work can be seen at www.StevenLogan.com.